

VIRGINIA ASIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE'S
NORTHERN VIRGINIA OFFICE PROUDLY HOSTS

How to Do Business with the Commonwealth of Virginia

A business clinic for the Asian community

Come learn how to navigate the state system of minority business certification system, how to be certified as a minority business, how to put "eVA" program works to for you, and how to bid effectively for state contracts.

Wednesday May 13, 2009 From 1—3 pm

When? Wednesday May 13th, 2009 From 1-3 pm

Where? Centreville Regional Library

Meeting Room #114200 St. Germain Drive, Centreville, VA 20121-2299 Tel: (703) 830-2223

Topics:

Understanding eVA Program and How It Works for Your Small Business
How to Use eVA
How To Update Your eVA Account
How To Recognize the Appropriate Industry Codes
What Products and Services Does Virginia Government Purchase
Overview of the SWaM (Small, Women, and Minority Businesses) Program

Who should attend?

Anyone ready to compete in state contract system * All established Asian American businesses who are serious about doing business with the state * Anyone wishing to bring their enterprise to the next level, increase business opportunities, and identifying new state government contracting opportunities * Anyone ready to submit a bid for state contracts and ready to follow up with potential government buyers in person and in writing.

COST: FREE * REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED

To register please contact Tinh Phan Email: aabac@aabac.org or Tel (804) 798-3975.

Walk ins are welcomed * Visit us at www.aabac.org